Fight Song

*Fight for Eastern Hills.
We have a school that's proud and true.
So yell that yell with a will
That raises colors gray and blue.
Highlanders march right down the field to victory we're won anew
Carry on the glory tell the old old story
Victory for Eastern Hills.*

Foreword

This year the 1964 Clan Staff reveals the importance of "Time." Through the addition of the Highlander Diary we hope you may recall many joyful moments spent on this campus throughout the past year.

Suddenly, we as seniors, realized that time is but a fleeting moment. Each day we can say, "I have not passed this way before . . . and I will not pass this way again," Today is unique. Don't let its wonderful moments go by unnoticed—and unused. We agree with Horace Mann, who said, "Lost, yesterday, somewhere between sunrise and sunset, two golden hours, each set with sixty diamond minutes. No reward is offered, for they are gone forever."

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;

A time of war, and a time of peace."

Ecclesiastes 3

Former Teacher Receives Recognition

We, the members of the annual staff, respectfully dedicate the 1964 Clan to Mr. Billy W. Sills, former history teacher at Eastern Hills. Mr. Sills has contributed much of his life to his profession—teaching. Truly, teaching is his profession, for his dedicated pursuit of knowledge has enriched the lives of countless students. His efforts have influenced generations of students in the future through his work with Future Teachers of America. It was proudly, but sadly, that we bade him goodbye when he was promoted to Consultant for Social Studies this year. This dedication is made, therefore, in recognition of his devotion to teaching and his service to our community.

Thank You

You will never know how much I enjoyed my stay at Eastern Hills because I am not able to show it. Therefore I only say "thank you."

I thank the faculty of Eastern Hills very much for helping me to find my dictionary, which sometimes got lost. Miss Moore tried very hard in changing me to an American girl by sending me for left-handed monkey wrenches. But after a short time she recognized that I had learned too good (sic).

There are many strange things in an American high school. One example is a pep rally. I have to admit that I never understood it. But I got a record of one and this will help me not to forget the Texas (king-sized) voices of Eastern Hills' ladies and gentlemen.

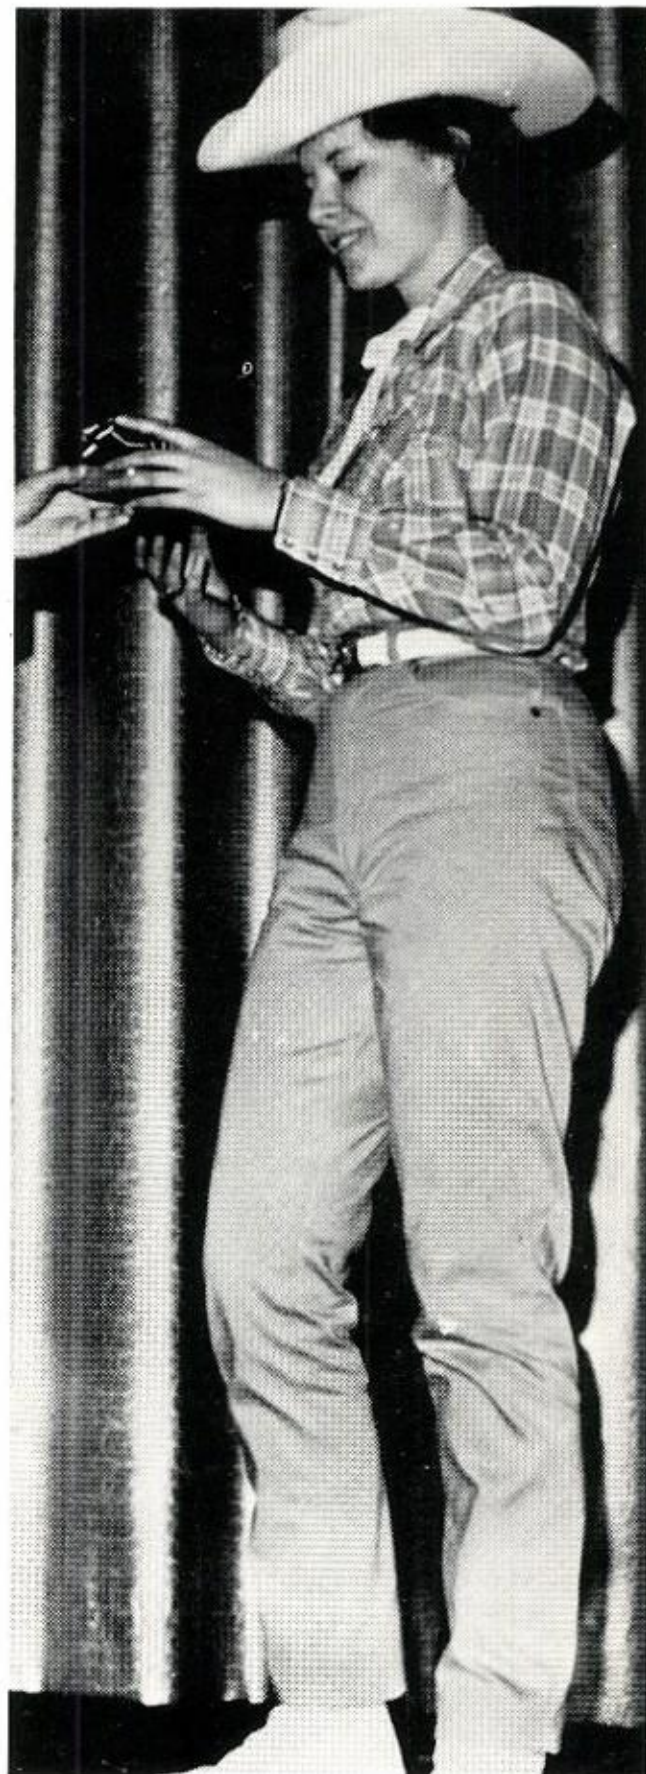

I think I had a very big opportunity in learning about other people and making contact between two nations. Of course, there are many differences between the new and old world, and sometimes it is hard to understand and get along with it. But this is the duty of an exchange student, and I tried to manage it.

There are so many things which amused or sometimes shocked me which I later liked. Anyway, again I want to tell you thank you.

Ines Conced

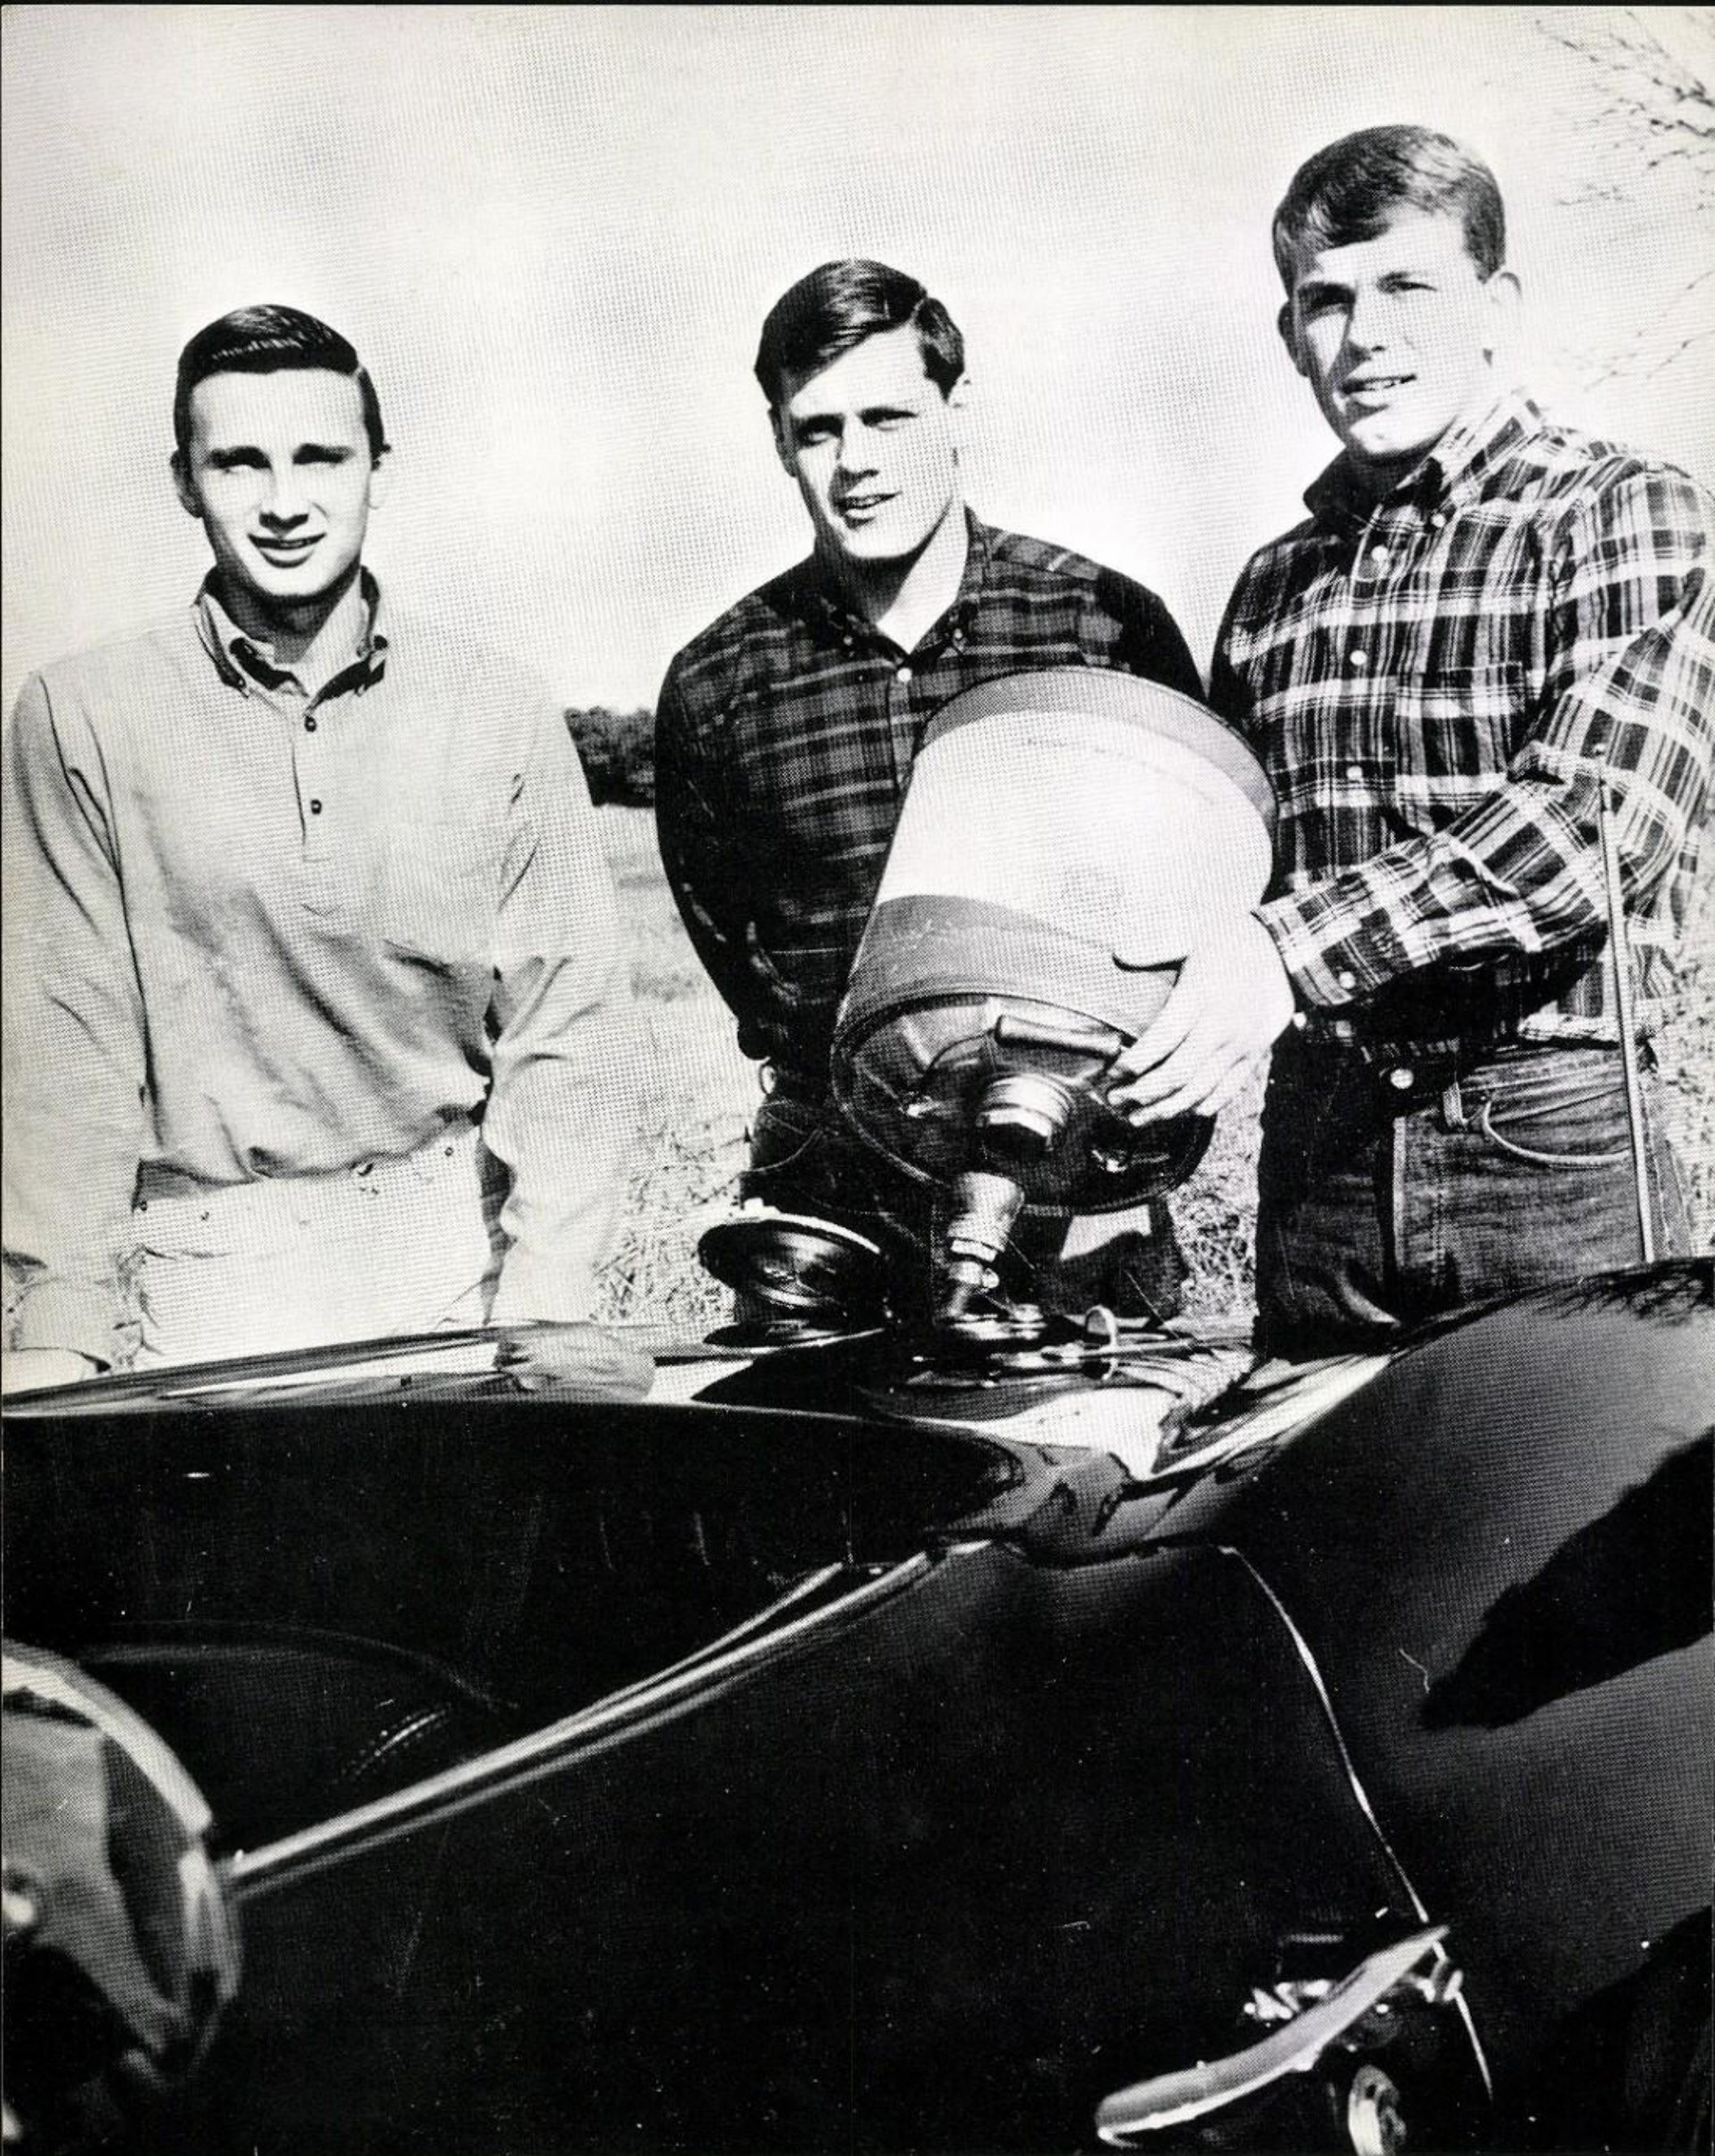

Ines was in charge of decorating her homeroom when the Y-Teens sponsored a contest at Christmas. She received first prize for her efforts.

On Ranch Day, the Y-Teens presented Ines with a complete western outfit in behalf of the student body.

Along with the rest of the seniors, Ines was measured for her cap and gown.

This course combines Plane Geometry, Solid Geometry, and Analytical Geometry. Solid Geometry is no longer offered because of this new addition.

Elementary Analysis is offered to senior students who have completed two years of algebra, one year of geometry, and a semester of trigonometry.

English Students

Included in the English department are three years of English and one of journalism.

Sophomore and junior English classes are divided equally, with literature the first semester and grammar the second. Seniors spend one and a half semesters covering literature; the rest of the year is devoted to grammar.

The spring brings with it the juniors' first term theme. While the subjects vary, most of the themes are written on some phase of an American author's life. The seniors, who author their term themes in the fall, chose their topics from English literature.

A survey of world literature, both ancient and modern, is studied by sophomores. Juniors study the literary heritage of America while seniors delve into English writings.

Journalism is offered to seniors only. While learning the basic principles of lay-out, writing, and making headlines, the students publish a bi-weekly newspaper, the Tartan.

History Department

Three new teachers have been added to the social studies department to help meet the demand for the ever increasing interest in world and national events. They are Mrs. Perkey, Mr. Bivin, and Mr. Kitchens.

This department keeps students informed on current events and their importance, as well as giving a broad base of history. Its goal is to inspire students to support our democratic form of government and to provide knowledge about it so that they may be able to vote wisely and take part in government affairs in the future.

World History is offered all three years at Eastern Hills. This one-year course broadens the students' knowledge of world affairs and their relation to the United States. The course of study involves the history and government of countries all over the world.

Adds New Teachers

American History, offered the last two years at EH, traces the history of America back to England and shows how our system of government has evolved. This course includes the study of the Presidents and the electoral procedure.

Government I is offered during the senior year. In its curriculum is the study of the government of the United States, including the separation of powers between the federal and state governments and the division of powers within the federal government.

A second semester of government is offered to interested students who have completed Government I. Government 2 includes the study of the state government. The duties of the branches of government and its officers are studied in detail. The course also involves the study of court and trial procedure.

Coaches Bring

Sports of all kinds are enjoyed in Highlanderland. Eastern Hills is fortunate to have the services of five experienced coaches. These coaches have worked very hard, leading Hills to a district championship in football and basketball.

The football team benefits from the knowledge and experience of Coaches George Mitcham, James Willingham, and Dub Graves. Each has had experience coaching other teams before coming to Eastern Hills. Coach Graves also manages the baseball team, and Coach Willingham, the track team. Special thanks, this year, go to Coach Johnny Howerton for developing the 1964 district champions in basketball, the Highlanders. Coach Tommy Runnels prepares teams of the future as he coaches the B teams, in addition to the golf team.

Team sports which are offered are volleyball, basketball, speedball, and softball. Individual sports are badminton, archery, table tennis, shuffleboard, and tennis. Golf has been recently added, and more activities, such as fencing, will be added later.

"What's the hold up, boys? Somebody swipe the football?" Cheerleaders and Highlandettes await the return of the team to the football field.

Highlandettes Boost School Spirit

Supporting the school athletic activities is the main function of the Highlandettes. At the beginning of each football game, the girls form an honor guard to cheer the team as it runs onto the field. To prepare for this, they practice after school twice a week during football season.

For the past four years, the Highlandettes have sold programs at the Will Rogers Indoor Games, sponsored by the Fort Worth Coaches Association. They have also sold programs at the City Recreation Track Meet for two years.

"Oh, to be a Highlandette!" groans Al Lewis. Football players escorted dates down the aisle at the homecoming pep rally.

Any girl interested may become a Highlandette, provided that she has a C average and furnishes her own uniform. A section is reserved for Highlandettes at all pep rallies, where they sit as a group. Here they yell at the Homecoming pep rally.

Five Lettermen Spark EH Team

After last year's first place tie, the Highlanders finished second in the district 4A-5 race. Many juniors came through to help EH climb to second even though the team was picked fourth. Five returning lettermen, Ray Avery, Lee Roy Gast, Ted Harris, Roby Morris, and Steve Rose, provided the foundation for a team that won 5 games, lost 3, and tied 1.

Juniors Phil Luebbehusen, Steve Morris, Mike Flowers, Johnny Norman, Lloyd Grimm, Mike Mitchell, and Larry Hulsey played admirably for the Highlanders throughout the year. Two sophomores, David Smith and Tommy Thompson, earned berths on Eastern Hills' rock-ribbed defensive team.

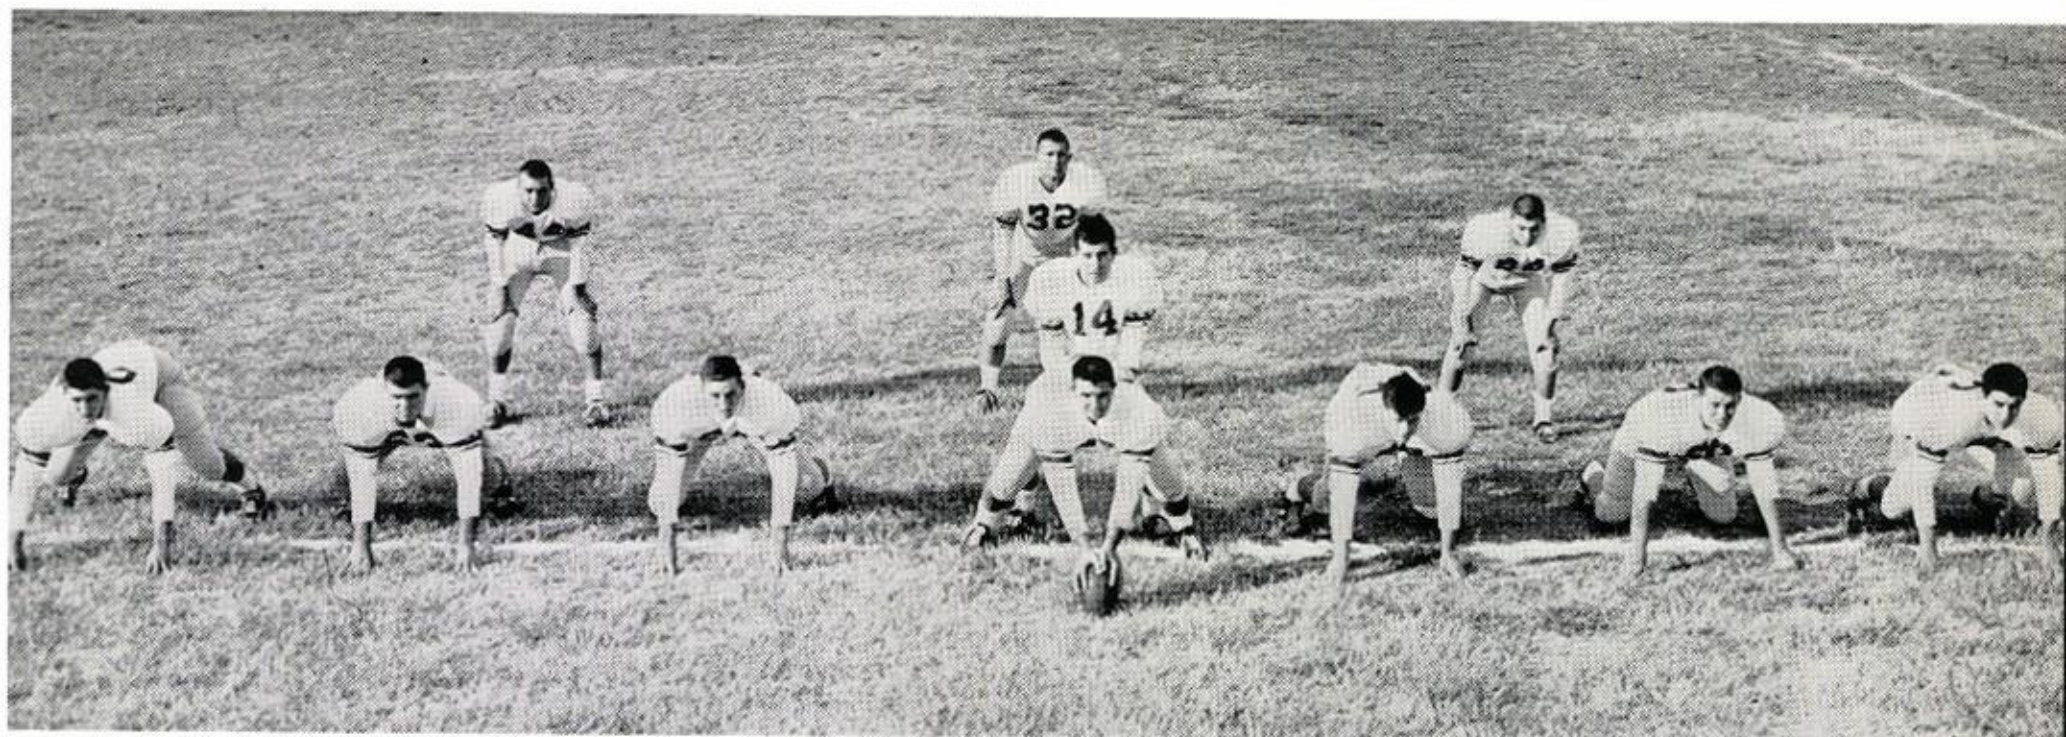

As a tribute to a fine season, the Highlanders placed five boys on the all-district team. Tri-captains Ted Harris, Ted Moberg, and Steve Rose gained honors. Harris made all-district at his defensive cornerback position; Moberg was all-district fullback and halfback. Rose, all-district guard, also received the Thom McAn Award for leadership, sportsmanship, athletic ability, and academic achievements. Ray Avery capped a good year off by making all-district tackle. Mike Flowers, a junior, captured all-district center honors.

Leading the Highlanders to another successful season were tri-captains, top to bottom, Ted Harris, Ted Moberg, and Steve Rose.

August workouts account for favorable season record. Coach Willingham advises Mike Flowers on his blocking technique.

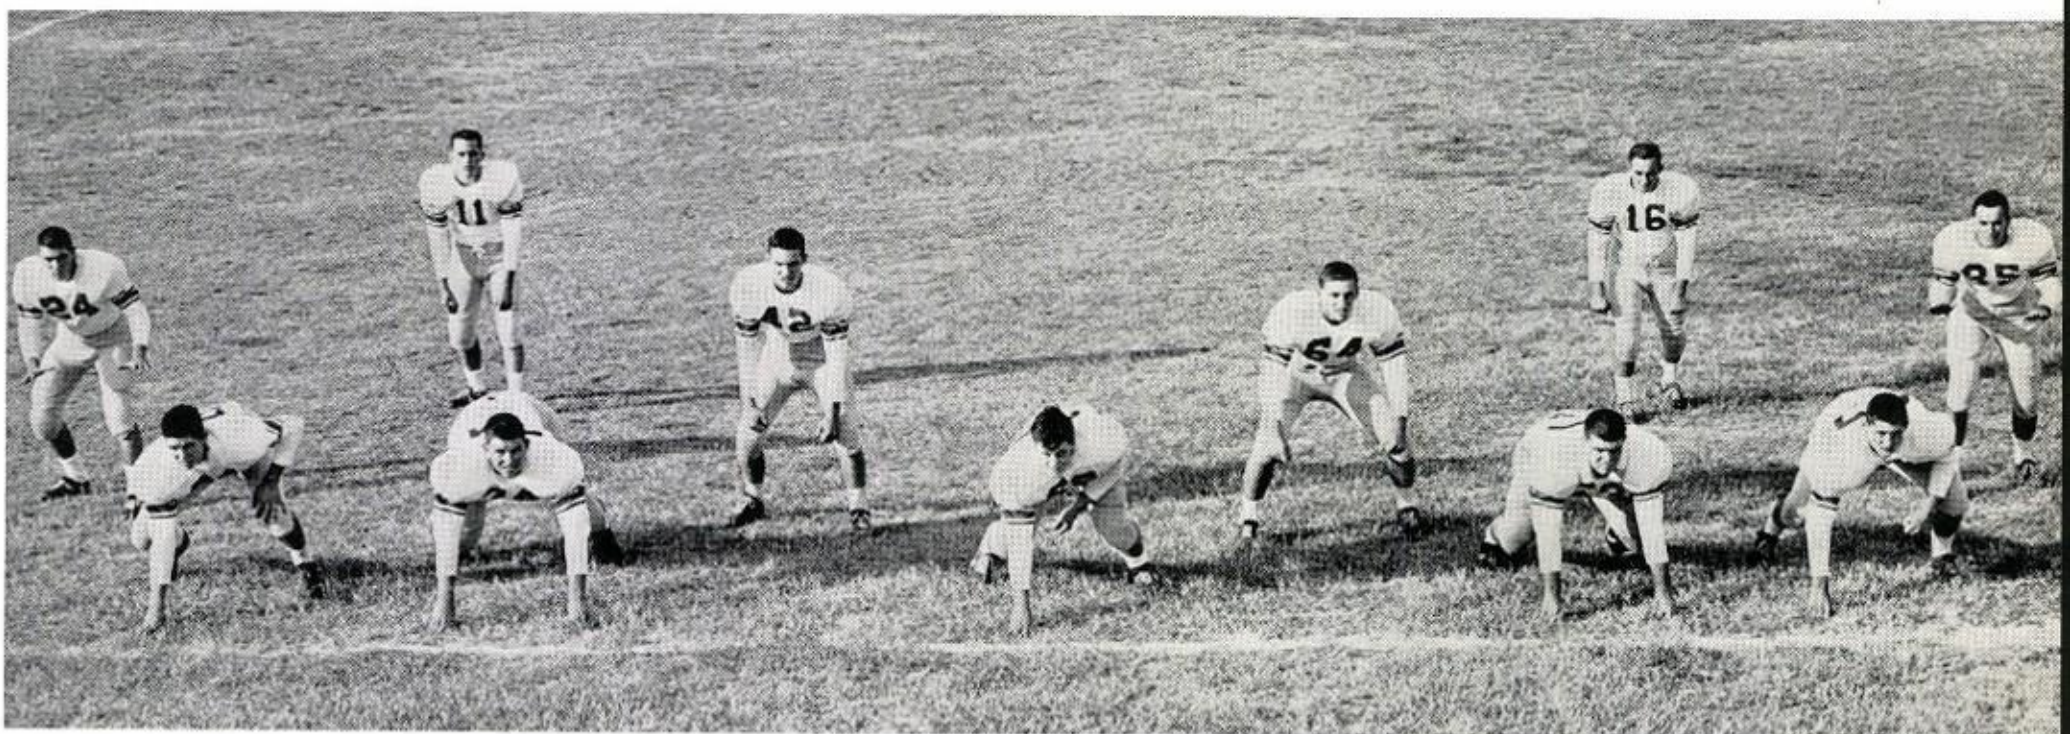

Johnny Norman, Ray Avery, Steve Rose, Mike Flowers, Steve Morris, Phil Luebbehusen, and Al Lewis, who composed the front seven, did a consistent job of opening holes for the backfield combination of Lloyd Grimm, Ted Moberg, Leslie Jackson, and Ted Harris.

On behalf of the team, tri-captains Steve Rose, Ted Moberg, and Ted Harris present Mr. Vaughan, vice principal, with the game ball declaring victory over North Side, 7-0. Mr. Vaughan is a former teacher at North Side.

Steve Rose, and Kenny Allen backed up the line. Dwayne Williams and Tommy Thompson defended against passes. Highlanders held opponents scoreless in five games.

Wayne Hardy (22) takes a pass from Roby Morris for a first down; however, the Highlanders failed to cross Richland's goal line in this series.

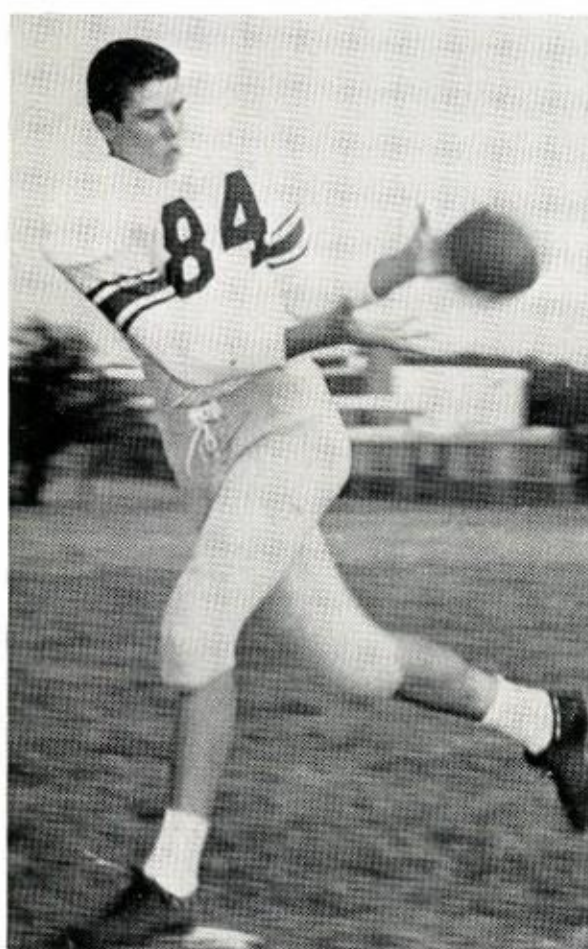

Rebels Massacre Clan 33-6

In the season starter, Richland's Rebels routed the Highlanders 33-6 to keep alive a jinx which has prevailed in every game Eastern Hills has played at Birdville Stadium.

Misfortune plagued the Clan from the beginning as several starters were sidelined. Guard Phil Luebbehusen was ineligible until the Haltom game; tackle Lee Roy Gast was recovering from knee surgery; and end Kenny Allen was ill. Although he had a broken hand, tackle Steve Latham started the game. At one time none of the five returning lettermen, center Ray Avery, Gast, halfback Ted Harris, quarterback Roby Morris, and guard Steve Rose were in the game. Injuries incurred during the contest by quarterback Dwayne Williams, guard Carl Underwood, and tackle Billy Fernihough further hampered the Highlander attack.

Williams' kick-off return from his own 14 to the Richland 20 was the major play in Eastern Hills' only scoring drive. Four plays later, facing fourth-and-six at the 16, quarterback Morris passed to end Al Lewis in the end zone for six points. Mike Moore's placement try was no good, leaving the score 7-6 in the first quarter. The Highlanders never drew any closer with Richland widening the gap to 33-6 by the time the game ended.

Ted Moberg (32) struggles for a few yards before a host of McCallum tacklers swarm him. McCallum repulsed this Highlander drive at their 30-yard line.

Austin, EH Play Scoreless Deadlock

Although the Highlanders traveled 189 miles to play Austin McCallum, they were unable to advance 19 yards for a touchdown and returned with a 0-0 tie in a 4A non-district game.

Eastern Hills threatened to score in the first quarter after Larry Hulsey recovered a McCallum fumble on the Knights' 19, but the offense bogged down at the 10 when they ran out of downs.

McCallum came within field goal range twice, penetrating to the Highlander 6 and 13 yard lines; however, one boot was wide and the other was blocked by Ray Avery.

The Highlanders' last chance to score came when Avery blocked an attempted field goal early in the fourth quarter. Ted Harris pounced on the loose ball and raced to Austin's 15 yard line, but Eastern Hills was thwarted again in an attempt to reach pay dirt.

Highlander pursuers come to give help as Ted Harris (24) halts Eddie Driggers of Haltom after a short gain.

Highlanders Hold Haltom

After a loss and a tie, the offensive power of the Highlanders combined with a supreme defensive effort which allowed Haltom only 10 plays the first half to give Eastern Hills a 13-0 victory over the Buffs.

Two touchdowns were marked in the first half as Leslie Jackson sneaked across from the Haltom one-yard line following Ted Harris' 36-yard runback on the opening kickoff. Mike Moore booted the extra point.

The lead was increased when the Clan charged 50 yards for another touchdown. An aerial play from Jackson to Al Lewis netted 19 yards and gave the Highlanders a first down at the Buffs' five. On fourth down and one, Harris plowed through the Haltom forward wall to score with 3:14 left. Moore's kick was wide, but the 13-0 edge at the half stood up for the Highlanders' first victory of the '63 season.

Parrots Fall to Clansmen 15-12

Held to a minus 16 yards rushing and 53 yards passing by Eastern Hills' famous defense, Poly still managed to score twice in the Highlander 15-12 victory.

Unable to move against the tough Highland defense, Poly's quarterback managed to throw a 42-yard TD pass. The PAT failed, leaving Poly ahead 6-0. Aroused, the Highlanders fought back. A screen pass from Leslie Jackson to Ted Moberg was good for a 64-yard TD jaunt, thanks to three good blocks by Ray Avery, Steve Rose, and Ted Harris. Jackson faked a PAT and threw a 2-point pass to Al Lewis to make it 8-6. Eastern Hills scored again in the fourth quarter on a 40-yard pass-and-run play from Jackson to Ted Harris. The PAT by Mike Moore made the score 15-6. Poly scored later in the fourth quarter on an 89-yard punt return. The try for two points failed and the Highlanders won 15-12.

Going for the loose ball are Highlanders, Tommy Thompson (16) and Dwayne Williams (11).

Ten men tackled North Side fullback Sammy McNeill short of the goal on the last play of the game as the Highlanders won, 7-0.

Staunch Defense Stops Steers

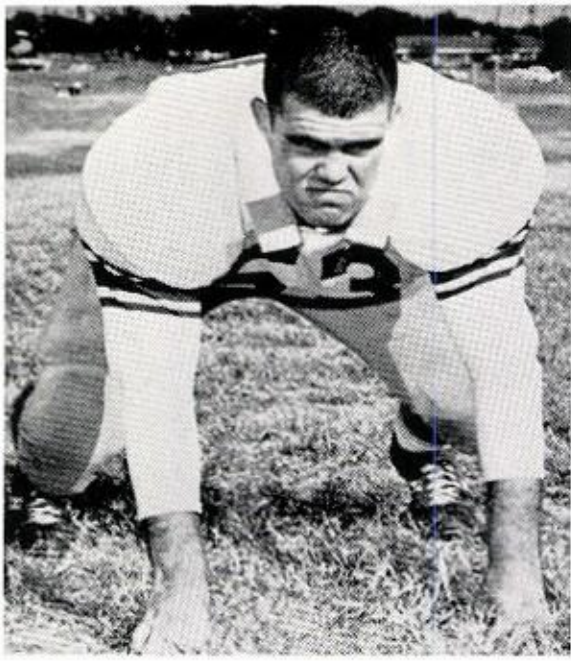

For 46 minutes Eastern Hills and North Side played a superb defensive football game, but in the last two minutes of play the offenses really gave the spectators their money's worth.

With only one minute and 20 seconds left on the clock, Leslie Jackson's pass to Lloyd Grimm resulted in a touchdown that climaxed a drive for 63 yards. Mike Moore booted the extra point, and Eastern Hills led 7-0.

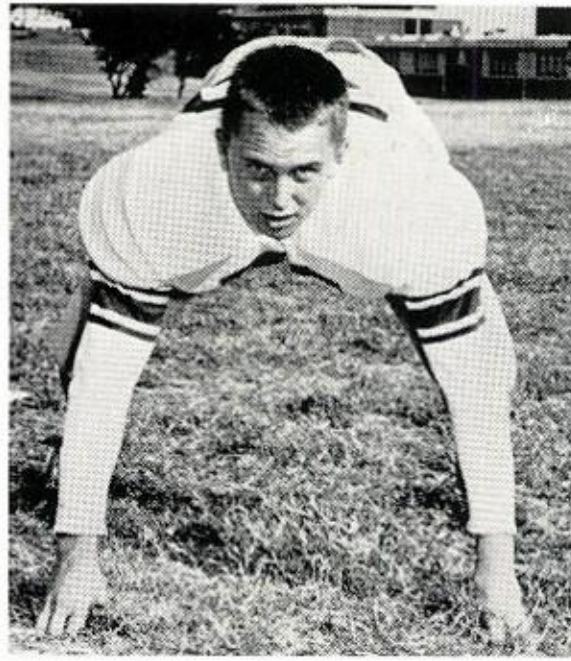

Highlanders received a jolt as the first half closed when a Steer intercepted a pass and scampered 75 yards for an apparent touchdown. But, at the Highlander 14, Ray Avery jarred him out of bounds to nullify the score.

In the fourth quarter, the Steers closed in for another scoring try. With 45 seconds left to play, North Side scrapped within inches of the goal line, but two passes were thrown incomplete. Steer fullback Sammy McNeill tried to dive over on a fourth down, but a determined forward wall withstood his thrust as the clock ran out, giving Eastern Hills a victory over the only district team which defeated the Highlanders in their bid for the city championship last year.

Al Lewis (80) makes a good try for the pass from EH quarterback, but the defensive man has other ideas.

Following Ted Moberg (32), Lloyd Grimm (44) grinds out 4 yards to the 24-yard line against Carter.

First Field Goal Snarens Eagles 3-0

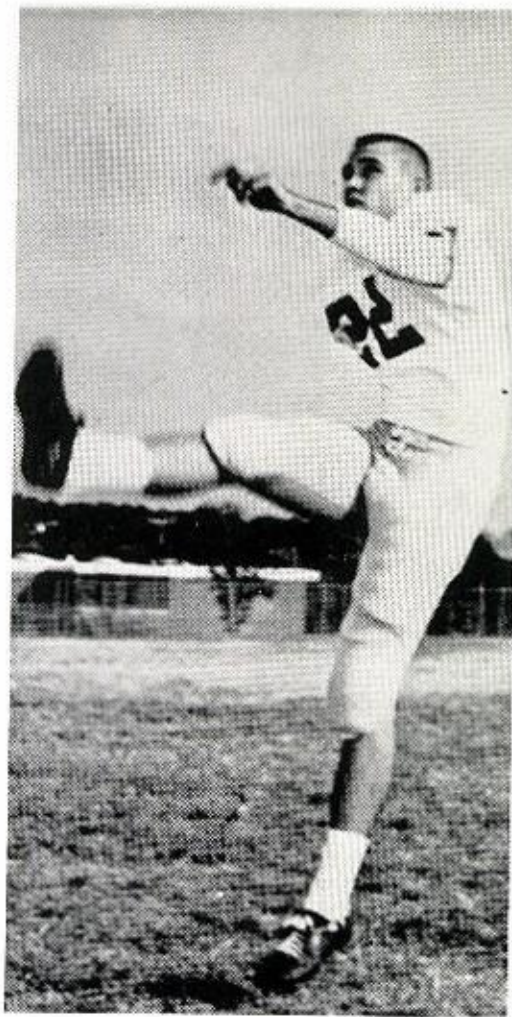

Mike Moore's field goal gave the Hillsmen a 3-0 victory over Carter in a rugged defensive battle at Handley Field. Twice in the first half they drove deep into Carter territory only to be repulsed by the strong Eagle defense.

Deep in the second quarter the Highlanders were forced to punt from the Carter 41. A Carter linesman fumbled the ball, and William Higginbotham recovered for the Highlanders on the 16. After three plays the Clan was faced with a fourth and five situation on the 11-yard line. The offensive team called on kicking specialist Moore, who booted Eastern Hills' first recorded field goal from the 19. The first half ended 3-0.

Through the first three quarters the defensive team held Carter penetrationless. Late in the fourth, the Eagles drove to the two but were held in the now-famous EH goal line stand which has baffled many opponents. The Clan gained the ball on downs and ran out the clock with the score still 3-0.

Paschal Repays EHHS

With last year's 8-7 victory over Paschal in mind, the Highlanders were determined to defeat the Panthers again. The Clan took the kickoff and marched down the field. Then with fourth down and twelve from Paschal's 17-yard line, Leslie Jackson hit Ted Harris with a pass over the middle and Harris romped in for the score. Mike Moore's placement made the score 7-0.

Throughout most of the first and second quarters, Eastern Hills' formidable defense stopped Paschal's famed ground attack. Then in the latter part of the second quarter, Paschal went into a shotgun formation and passed their way down the field with just 48 seconds left in the half. Randy Conway pitched a 9-yard

TD strike to halfback Bob Black. After a conversion the score was tied at 7-7.

In the second half, it was all Paschal. During the third quarter, Paschal scored again from the Highlander 3-yard line to go ahead, 14-7. Late in the same quarter a snap from center on a fourth down situation was missed and gave Paschal a safety and a 16-7 lead.

Then early in the fourth quarter Paschal's Danny Cushman intercepted a pass and sped 27 yards to pay dirt to close out the scoring and give Paschal a 23-7 victory. The Panthers were seeking revenge this year since the Highlanders' victory last year knocked Paschal out of the right to play for bi-district.

A host of Paschal players wait for Ted Harris (24). The Highlanders' chance for two victories in a row over the always-powerful Panthers was thwarted by revenge.

Thanks to good blocking by the Highlander front seven, Ted Moberg (32) blasts through Tech defenders.

Hills Overpowers Bulldogs 21-0

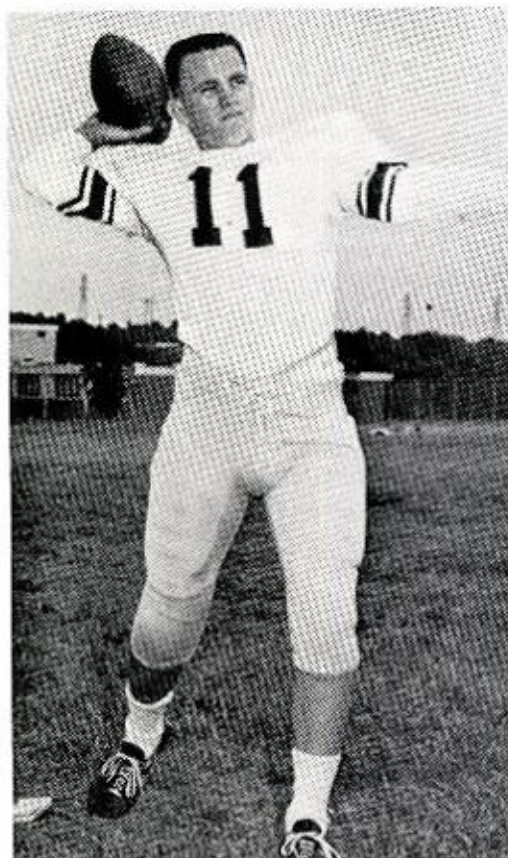

Tech fought hard and valiantly but the running of Ted Moberg and Ted Harris, plus the fierce blocking of the front seven resulted in a 21-to-0 victory for the Clan.

Eastern Hills romped for 366 yards on the ground with Harris getting 138 yards on 16 carries and Moberg getting 93 yards on 15 carries.

Harris scored first on a 2-yard dive play. Then later in the game, Moberg rammed off tackle for four yards, and the second touchdown was scored. Dwayne Williams tallied the third touchdown on a seven-yard sweep around left end, and Mike Moore closed the scoring by kicking his third successful PAT in this game.

Highlanders Drop District Finisher

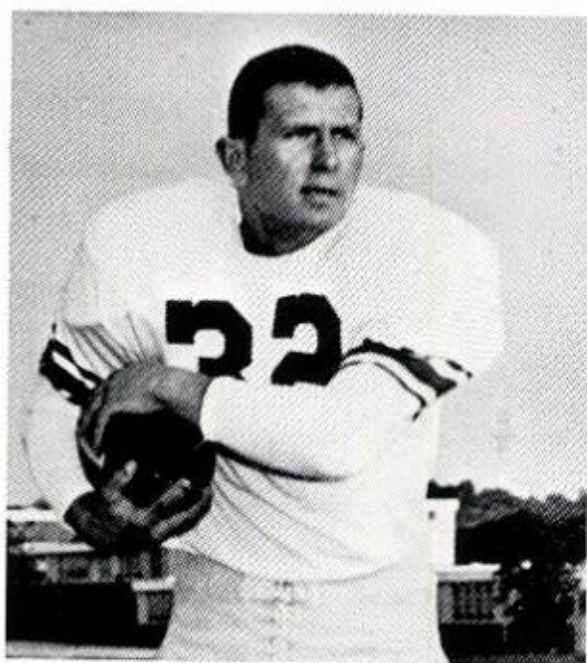

A soaked but still strong defense held Arlington Heights to seven points in the closing game of the season, but the Highlanders failed to score and lost 7-0. The Yellow Jackets took the opening kickoff, marched down the field, and capped a 67-yard march by scoring a TD. The rest of the evening Eastern Hills' defense completely bottled up the Jackets' high-gearred offense.

Hills' offense clicked on occasions, but the offensive unit couldn't gain yardage where it was needed most—inside Heights' 10-yard line. One penetration carried as far as the 11-yard line before the Highlanders ran out of downs. In the fourth quarter Lloyd Grimm recovered a fumble on the Yellow Jackets' 25-yard line. The Clan drove to the four, but they again ran out of downs.

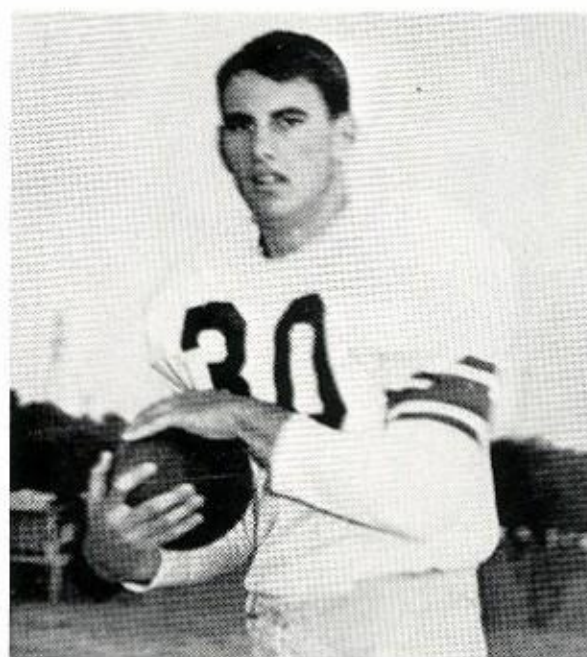

Defensive standouts included Ted Harris, Tommy Thompson, David Smith, Steve Rose, and Ray Avery.

First District Crown Won by Basketball Team

"Ability, attitude, and desire of the team, along with support of the student body and luck, were the factors which enabled the '64 Highlander basketball team to capture the district championship," remarks Coach Howerton. Pre-season record, 8-10, brought most spectators to believe that the team would be lucky to climb only a few steps of the district ladder and perhaps finish fourth in the district.

Falling to a non-impressive 2-4 district record in the first half of play, the Highlanders played flawless basketball in the final half and finished with a creditable 5-1 record and a district championship. This basketball team not only won the school's first district championship but also bettered, by far, any previous season record. Until this year, an Eastern Hills basketball team had never won more than two district games.

Players who served on the bi-district play-off team against Dallas Adamson had to be both outstanding and valuable. In pre-season games, honors were numerous. Roby Morris, David Richardson, and Wayne Templeton were named to the all-tournament team in the Graham Tournament. Roby and Wayne received the same honor in the Lions' Club Tournament during the Christmas holidays.

Sparkplug and leading scorer for the '64 Highlanders was six-foot all-district guard, Roby Morris. Wayne Templeton, all-district forward, also did an outstanding job. Aggressive rebounding and sharpshooting describe the actions of all-district honorable mention guard David Richardson. Postman Roy Burklow, who also received honorable mention, had clutch performances for fine rebounding. Junior guards Ward Ericson and Dwayne Williams rounded out the regular performers.

The huddle scene is captured as Coach Howerton gives vital instructions.

Dwayne Williams (30) tips the ball into the basket against Poly.

Coach Howerton sits in the dugout anxiously watching every play of the game.

Highlander baseball season started out in a disappointing manner as the team lost the first three games. Speed was put on the team when they started to win with the most lopsided victory they ever possessed; it was a 14-0 win over Lake Worth. Luck changed again when the Highlanders took their first out-of-town trip to Abilene, where they lost three in a row. Spirits weren't dampened, however, as the boys came back to win the first trophy EHHS's baseball team has ever won, by taking the crown of the Arlington Tournament.

Features

"Age, I make light of it, Fear not the sight of it, Time's but our playmate, whose toys are divine."

Thomas Wentworth Higginson

"Will the real Santa Claus please stand up." The Howdy Court is Sherri Sledge, Steve Rose, Carole Ballem, Steve Marsh, Tutti Ziegler, Rusty Culp, Robby Rowdon, Susan Warriner, David Thurman, Karen Hauelsen, Ted Moberg, and Shelia Ward.

Jan Cardwell entertains with the selection, "I Really Had a Ball in Maypearle; Maybe It's Because I Was the Only Girl."

Howdy Week Begins School Activities

Two events which students look forward to as the new year begins are Howdy Week and the Tartan-Clan Package Plan program. Howdy Week is sponsored by Y-Teens to promote friendliness and to help sophomores become acquainted with upperclassmen. The Package Plan program is planned by members of both publications, but participants do not have to be members of the staffs.

"Robby, let's talk this over!" Robby Rowdon, Howdy King, bestows the traditional kiss on Howdy Queen, Shelia Ward.

TCPP Features

TV Favorites

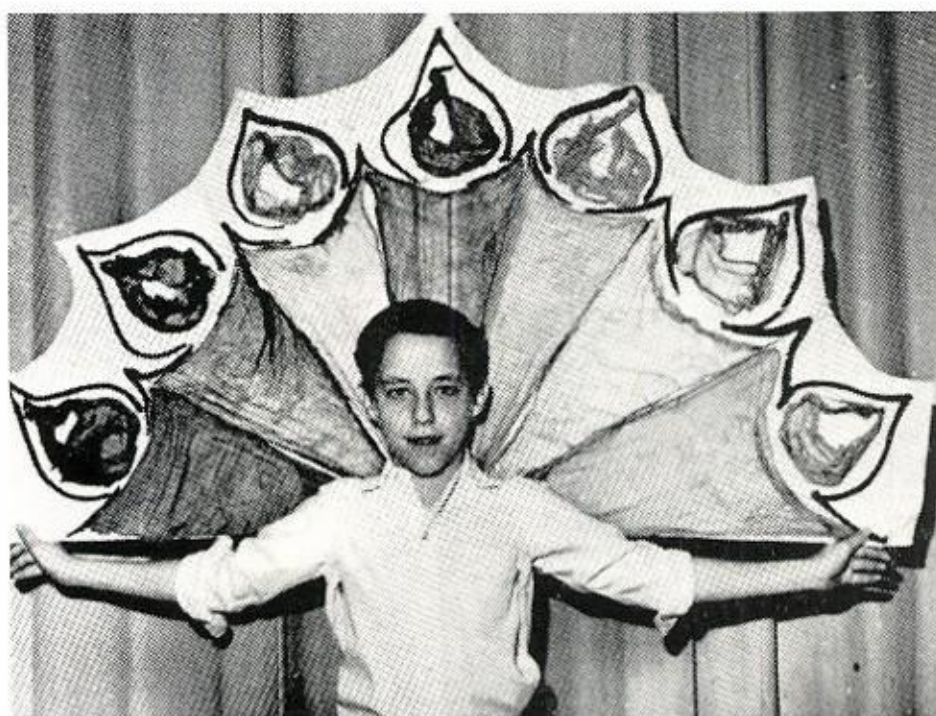

"Television Time" was the theme of the Tartan-Clan kickoff program this year. Highlanders viewed their favorite television programs in living color, produced and directed by members of the faculty and student body. The shows didn't rate Emmy Awards, but they led to a record sale of nearly nine hundred annuals.

David Thurman, Miss Teenage America, gives a dramatic reading. "Sweetly I heard the maiden say, 'Bring back my Tartan-Clan Package Plan'."

Says Bill Fuqua.

Mickey Morrow, substituting for the NBC peacock, spreads his feathers to begin the Tartan-Clan program, an annual assembly to kick off the drive for the yearbook and newspaper.

Telling the story of Homecoming from several different viewpoints, this double exposure graphically combines the joy of the queen, Karen Hauelsen, with the somber attitude of the football captains and the band.

"Our group had thirty-four per cent fewer cavities." Susan Warriner, Sharon Elliott, Queen Karen Hauelsen, Carole Ballem, and Shelia Ward make up the Homecoming Court.

"And I'm not just whistling 'Dixie'!" Roby Morris escorts Susan Warriner down the aisle at the Homecoming pep rally.

"So you lost the game; it's not the end of the world!" Mary Lou Waldrup and Jim McVean discuss the game at the homecoming dance.

"This is a panther; color him dead."

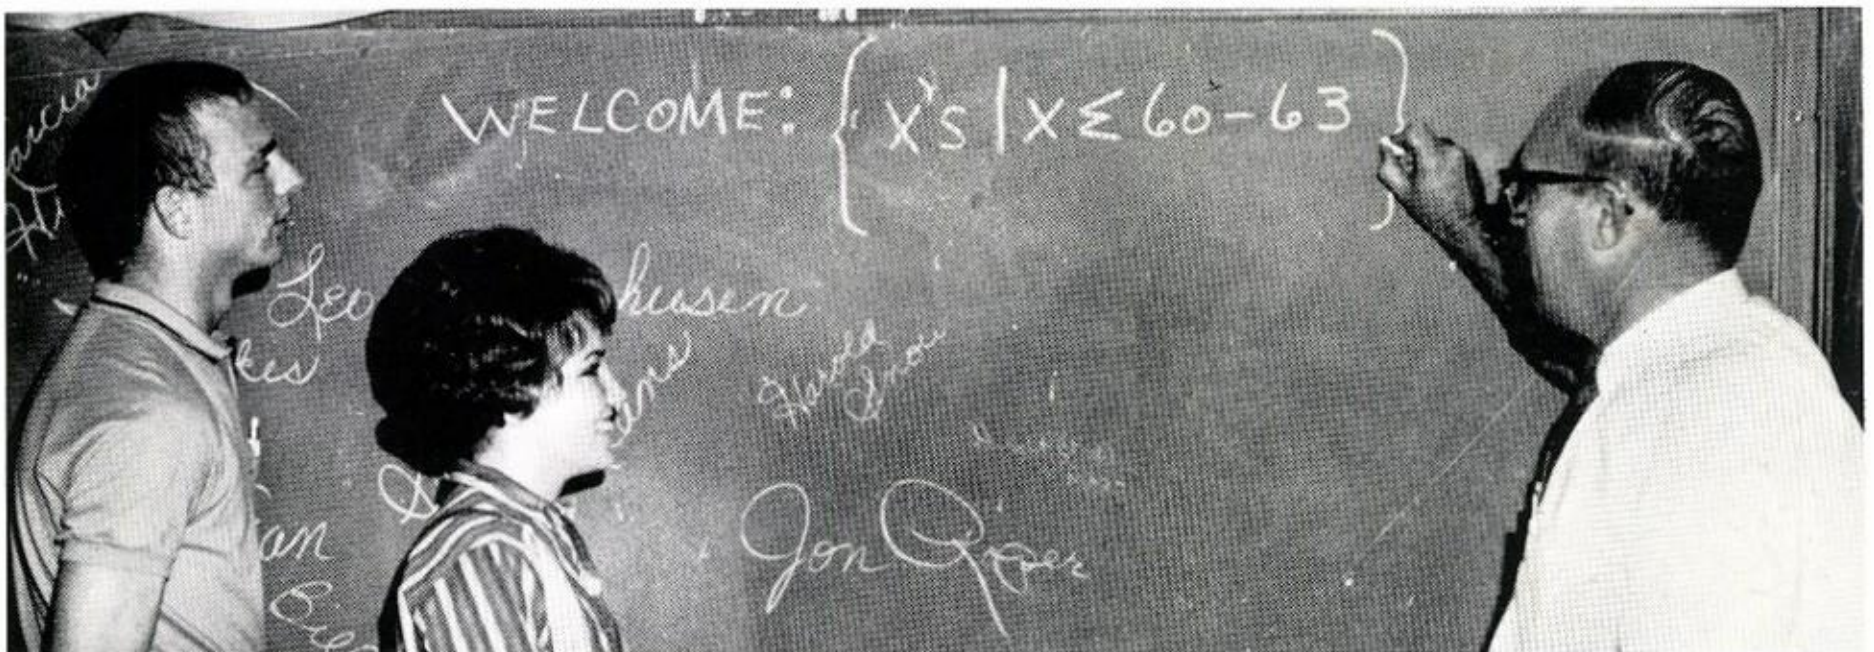

Exes Return to Alma Mater for Fourth EH Homecoming

"Step into my parlor," Coach Runnels says to Homecoming students.

"Rats! It's tails again," says Johnny Norman to Larry Hulsey, David Ericson, and Jane Hollingsworth at the Homecoming Dance.

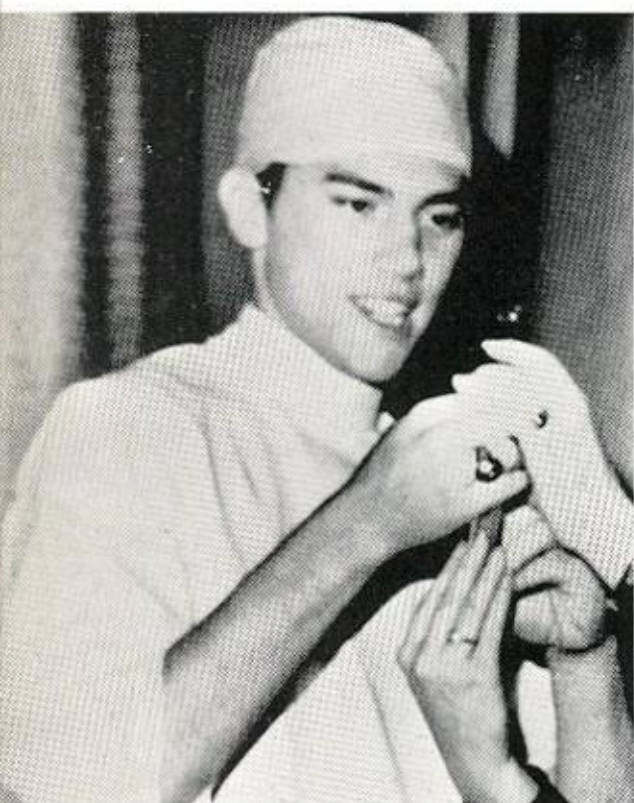

Using the only language known to male teachers, Mr. Avery welcomes Exes.

"Follow me. I know every inch of this tight rope." Ward Ericson, Mike Mitchell, and Lloyd Grimm practice before the show.

Holidays Bring Doll Show Antics

"I'm all hands today!" Ted Harris is a Ben Casey doll.

"There she is . . ." Carl Underwood portrays a Miss America doll.

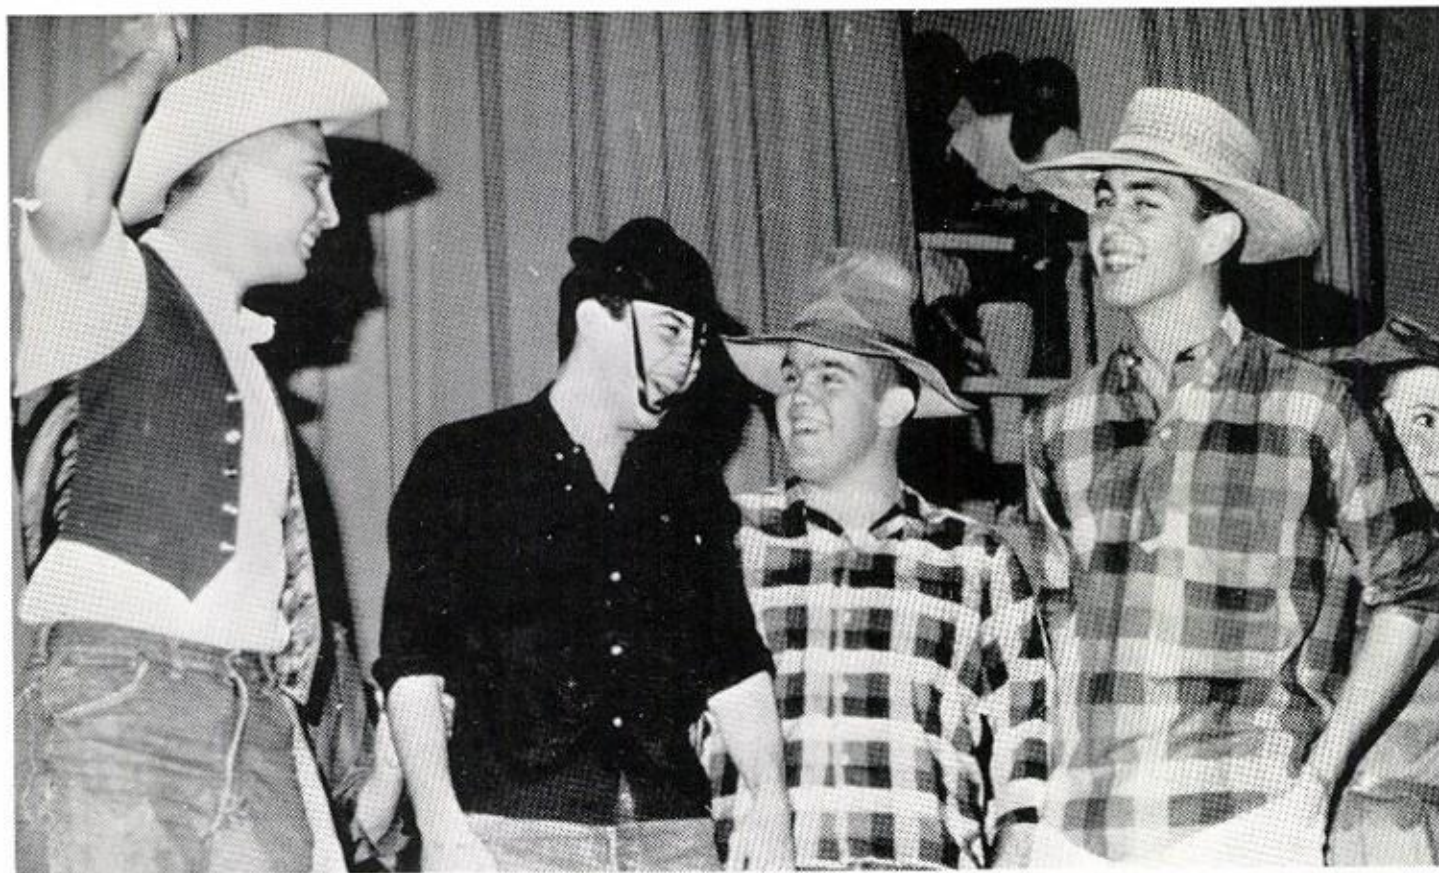

"You can go in anyway, Janie, but be sure and bring your can tomorrow." Kurt Meer and Bryce Beyer collect cans of food from Jane Tangney and Pat Senchack.

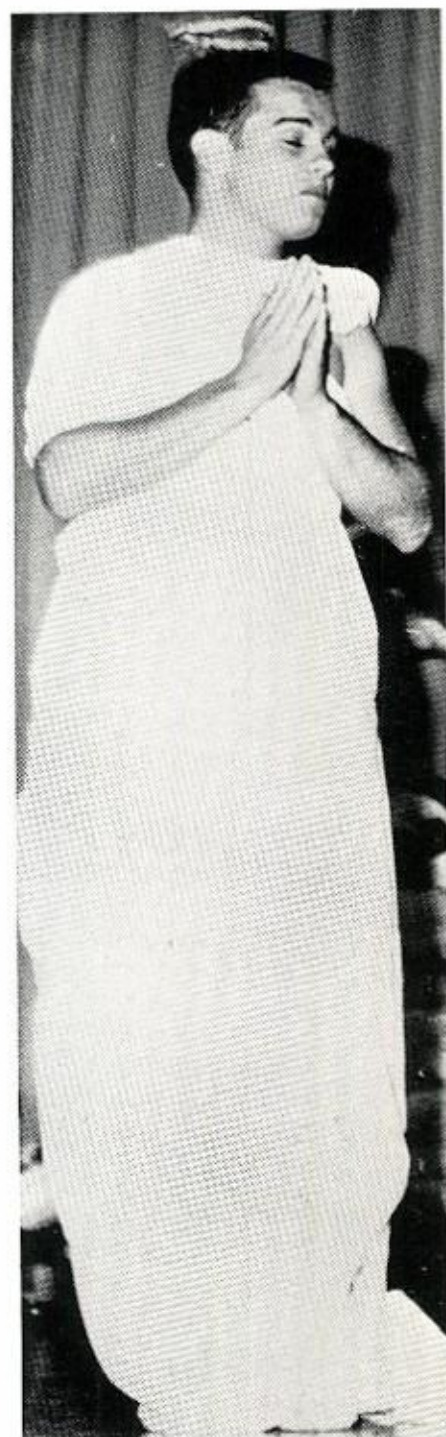

"If you think that's funny, wait until you hear the punch line!" Kissy doll Johnny Norman is given to Donna Beene.

"Push harder, Susan, we've almost got them across the line." Rag dolls are Carole Ballem, Carol Stanley, Brenda Haire, Susan Warriner, Artie Saye, and Nancy Nagle.

"Aw, shucks, boys, you have to explain these newfangled jokes to me!" Lee Roy Gast, Al Lewis, Ray Avery, and Tommy Boswell portray the Cartwrights.

"I'm a stranger in paradise," says Robby Rawdon.

"Keep your nose out of my mouth while I sing if you don't mind." Tri-Tones Kathy Hubbard, Mary Reid, and Donna Waters entertain with a tune.

"I took the pep pills but I still can't lift my feet," says Mutt (Rusty Culp) as Jeff (Sherri Sledge) looks away.

This is David Thurman; color him passionate. This is Joy Smith; color her shocking pink.

"We, the student body and faculty . . ." Karen Hauelsen gives the pledge of support to the Highlander team as Coach Mitcham, Ted Moberg, and Robert Coffee reflect the seriousness of the occasion.

Traditions of School Make Rallies Special

"Just let loose of the curtain and you'll drop!" Robert "Pop-sicle" Stuart leads yells to spur the B team.

"I just happen to have one with me."
And we all squeal with glee.
Coach Graves is proud to show it
'Cause he's our pep rally poet.

"Beat Paschal!" Mr. Johnson demonstrates the faculty's support for the Highlanders.

What makes you so nervous today, Ilene Miller?

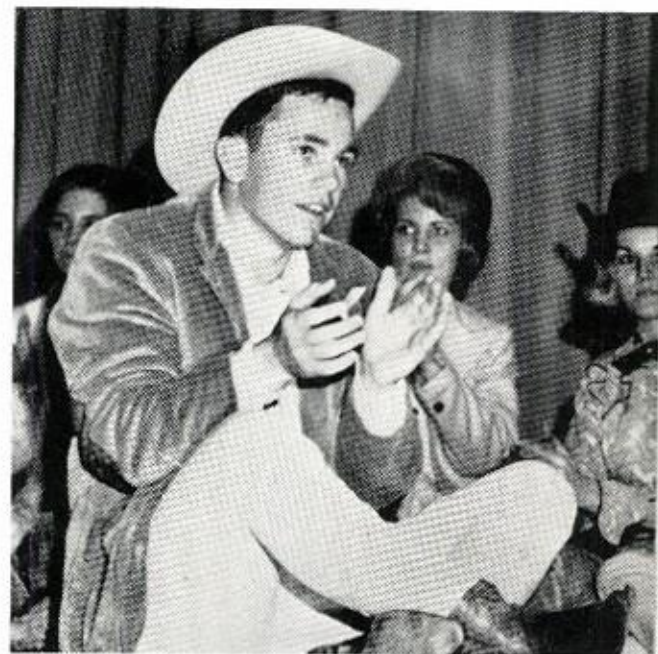

"Er-a, er-a, is you de law?" Brian Spain adds to the Ranch Day festivities by singing "Long Tall Texan."

"Uh, what's the next line?" Nancy O'Neill, Rusty Culp, Jim Hart, Diane Hooton, Roby Morris, Mike Moore, Bonnie Lewis and Connie Lewis greet students with "Walk Right In" at Ranch Day Program.

"Howdy, you all." Tutti Zeigler serves as mistress of ceremonies.

"Patty-cake, patty-cake . . ." Dwayne Williams keeps time during the program.

Hoedown Highlights Ranch Festivities

"Just a minute—let's count those feet again." Sharon Elliot and Roby Morris ponder the foot problem.

"One, two cha cha . . . Get off my foot!" Denice Barber congratulates Top Hand Janet Shephard.

Beauty queen Sharon Elliott poses happily with emcees Ted Moberg, Ted Harris, Buzz Gardner, and Bill Wilson shortly after being pronounced pageant winner.

"I'll carry whomever I want to carry over my threshold!" states Jan Cardwell with Mickey Morrow in her arms. Mickey sang "I'd Like to Get You on a Slow Boat to China" on the variety part of the program.

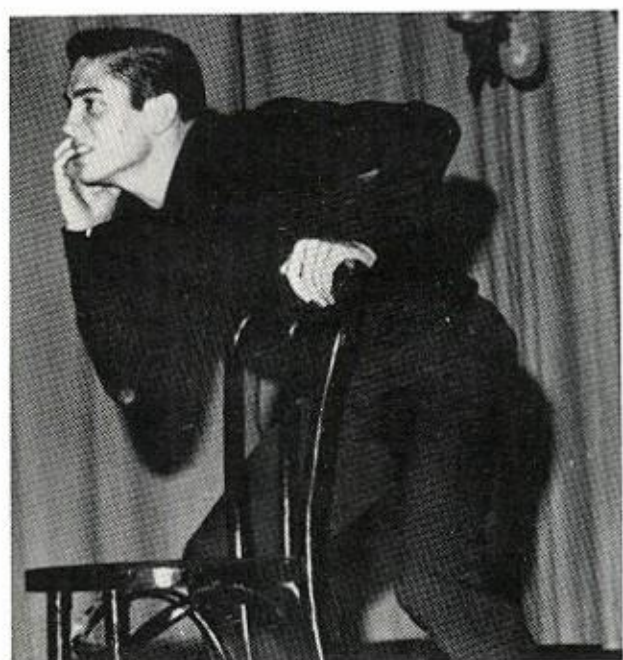

"Mr. Vaughan, let me explain." Carl Underwood sings about "Sweet Rosie O'Grady" at the variety show.

"What do ya mean, you don't think I can break it?" asks Pam Lankton who presented a unique version of a strip as her talent in the beauty contest.

Highland Fling Showcases Local Beauties and Talent

"Maybe you're right—I do need a shave," says Courtney Crow, who gave a dramatic monologue in the talent contest.

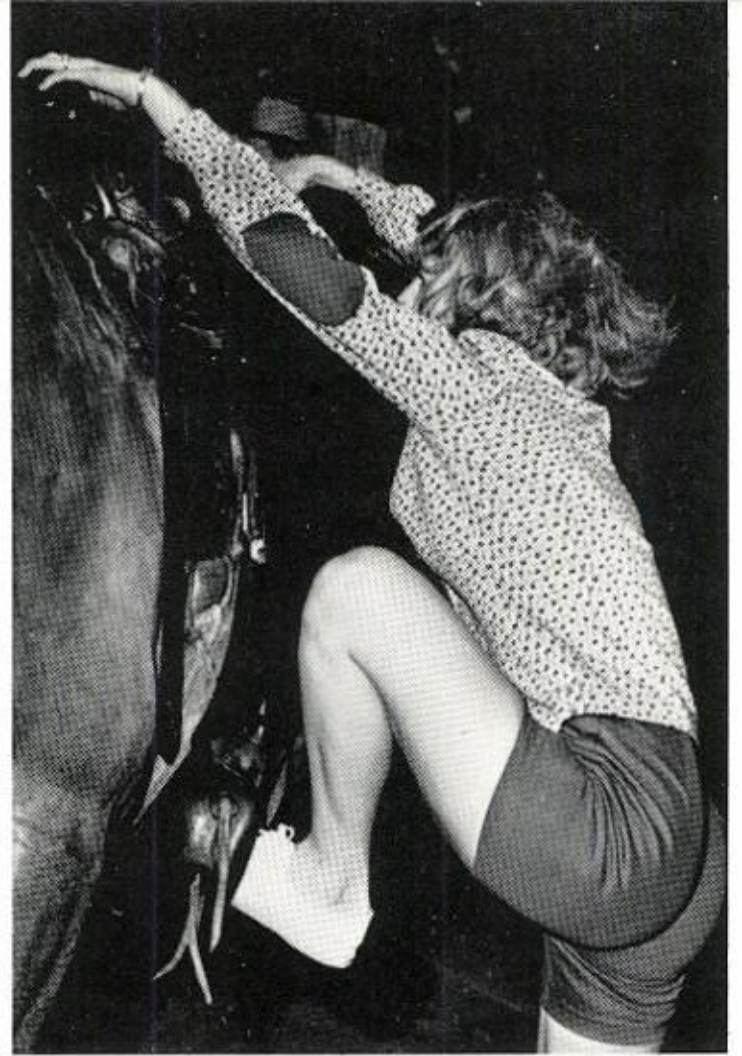

"Close your eyes and we turn into people," croon Warren Bates, Mike McQuitty, Mike Gentry, and Mike Talmage.

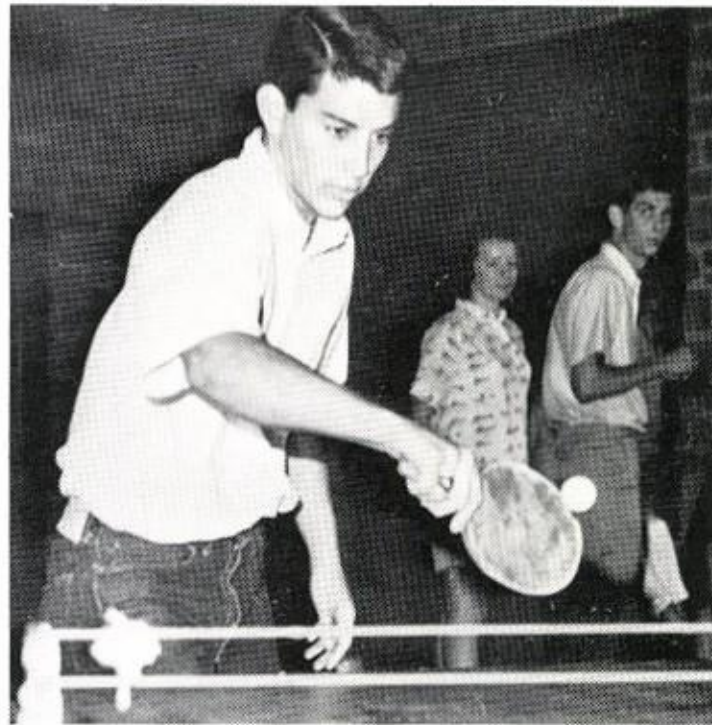

"Annabelle just cain't accept, Zack!" drawls Cynthia Childs to Tommy Nelson in a scene from "It Happens Every Summer."

Horseback riding was a favorite activity of the seniors who could get aboard.

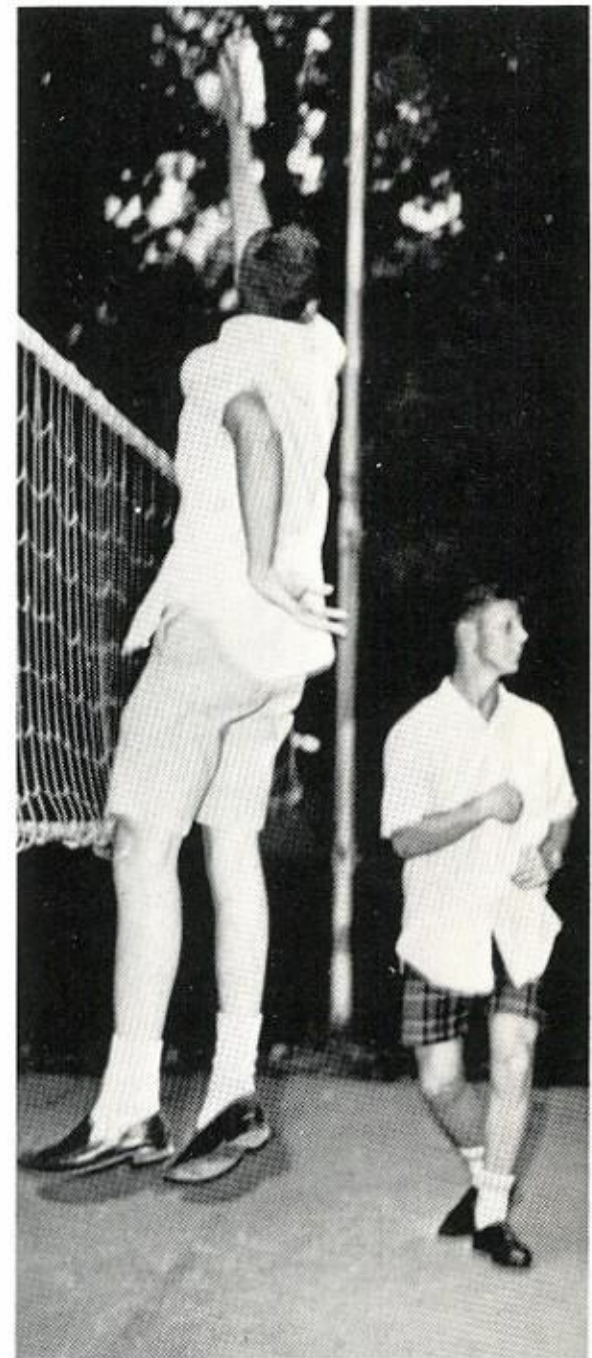

Senior Picnic, Program, Play Highlight of Grads' Activities

"Nothing makes you feel more insignificant than when someone significant says something significant about you." Mr. Sills accepts the annual dedication.

Al Lewis challenges a fellow senior's skill in a rousing game of ping-pong.

"You spiked it the wrong way!" says David Stagner in a volleyball game at Camp Carter.

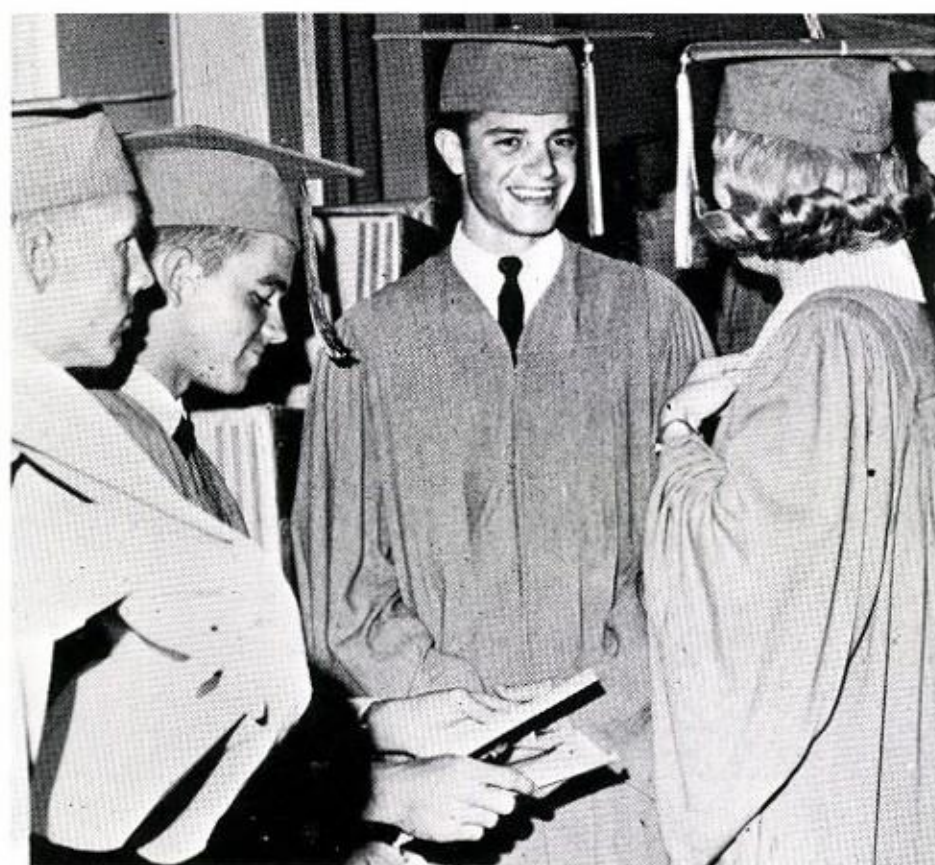

Class president Bill Wilson served as master of ceremonies at the senior banquet at Colonial Country Club.

Valedictorian Monty Harrell delivers speech at graduation exercises at Will Rogers Auditorium, where the seniors were together for the last time.

Ted Harris turns Karen Hauelsen's ring during the Ring Turning ceremony at the Boat Club.

Awaiting the final call for lineup, these seniors share a last laugh together before the baccalaureate service.

The Mad Mouse was a popular spot for those who managed to stay awake at the all night party held at Six Flags Over Texas.

Is this a diploma being discarded in the cap and gown pile?! Seniors take off caps and gowns sadly and gladly.

Sandra,
 You are by far the sweetest girl anyone could know. I certainly have enjoyed your sincere friendships.
 I hope that your life will be full of happiness. You really deserve the best that life has to offer. You are a great Charles' sister - take care of things when you're seniors - I'll miss you when this year is over!
 Love you,
 Heneka

Sandra,

It's been absolutely terrific in knowing you these past 2 1/2 years. ~~But~~ This past year we have become closer friends. I hope our friendship will grow more in the years to come. I don't think I have ever met anyone with a greater personality and as sweet as you are. I hope all your wishes in life always come true. You deserve them. God bless you always in all that you do.

Love ya,
Rachael

Sandra,
Honesty, your friendship and the respect I have for you can not be expressed in words. I hope you and I have been so close and I hope we will remain that way no matter where our paths of life may lead.
Love,
Dianne
